3RD MAN IN DAY SLAYING GIVEN 5 YEARS IN PRISON

19 Indictments Are Returned; Court Is Adjourned Tuesday

Hershel Blair, 21, of the White Oak section, pleaded guilty to a charge of being an accomplice to voluntary manslaughter in the death of Mrs. Rissie Steele Day last January, and was meted a sentence of five years in prison in Morgan circuit court last Thursday.

The charge against Blair was reduced from being an accessory before the fact in the robbery and murder of Mrs. Day to being an accomplice to voluntary manslaughter, to which reduced charge he pleaded guilty.

Mrs. Day, an elderly widow, was robbed and beaten in her country home near West Liberty last January, and later died of the wounds.

While the Sorghum Festival was in noisy swing last weekend, members of the West Liberty United Methodist Church took time out to experience an unusual spiritual event in their Church and homes. Around 30 lay people from churches in Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee and Kentucky, led by Lee Tolson, Lexington businessman and lay worker, conducted a Lay Witness Mission here Friday through Sunday. Local church members were enthusiastic about the new approach employed by the Lay Witness team — group sessions, sharing of spiritual experiences, coffees, youth gatherings, visits to shut-ins, and church services conducted by the lay workers. Many of the local congregations found the new approach a moving experience. Members of the Lay Witness team were guests in local homes and some of the team are shown above at a coffee held at the home of Mrs. C. K. Stacy Saturday morning. Rev. Robert Myneer, pastor of the local church, is at right. Coffees also were held simultaneously at the homes of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gullett and Dr. and Mrs. George Bellamy.

Location of Grassy Creek Voting Place Is Controversied

A question has arisen as to where citizens of Grassy Creek precinct will be voting in next Tuesday's election, since the automatic voting machine has been moved from its usual location in a building constructed for that purpose a few years ago. However, no official notice of the change had been made, and the machine's location is now a subject of controversy.

PAPER PUBLISHED EARLY THIS WEEK

The Courier is being published early this week (on Tuesday night) so that printers will be free the remainder of the week to move additional printing machinery into the newspaper plant. We hope to be better equipped to serve our patrons faster when the equipment is installed and in use.

ELECTION NOV 2 TO ELECT STATE, DIST. OFFICERS

Morgan countians will go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 2, along with the rest of Kentuckians, to elect a governor and all state officers and a state senator and state representative.

Also Kentucky voters will pass on a constitutional amendment at the same time — an amendment which, if passed, will exempt homes of persons over 65 years of age from taxes on the first $6,500 of valuation. A "Yes" vote will be in favor of the exemption.

And voters within the City of West Liberty will elect a city council. Only one ticket, the Open Book Ticket, has candidates. They are — James Elam, Graden Walter, Sr., Mack Lewis, Dr. Charles Gullett, Millard Sheets and Harold Frederick. All are members of the present council except the last named.

There are four candidates for governor — Wendell Ford, Democrat; Thomas Emberton, Republican; A. B. Chandler, Independent Commonwealth Party, and William Smith, American Party.

Candidates for state senator in this district are — Joe D. Stacy, Democrat, and Lawrence Hall, Republican.

Woodford F. May of Woodford, incumbent Democrat, is unopposed for state representative.

Kentucky is one of only two states that will be electing governors this year, and widespread national attention will be directed at the results.

15,000 Here For Sorghum Festival Held Last Weekend

At least 15,000 people, many of them former Morgan Countians, thronged West Liberty Friday and Saturday for the first annual Morgan County Sorghum Festival.

The throngs of visitors, planners, the more than 65 artisans, craftsmen, and artists who turned up with over 2,000 handmade items for sale, local businessmen, sorghum vendors, knife traders, antique dealers, and the volunteers who operated the cane mill on Main Street — everybody — had fun.

Trade at the high school athletic field where local craftsmen and vendors displayed their wares and in local business establishments was brisk throughout the two-day event.

Mrs. Kathleen Blair and Mrs. Charleen Spencer, co-chairmen of the planning committee, said that local craftsmen and contributors of farm products, foods, and handmade items sold more than $1,200 worth of wares at the country store alone.

Initial estimates indicate that the 65 craftsmen sold a total of over $12,000 worth of handcrafted items, and Mrs. Blair said this figure does not include the amount made from concessions and antique booths.

County Extension Agent Douglas Howard estimated that sorghum vendors sold around 1,000 gallons of molasses during the festival, most of it going for $5.00 per gallon.

Thus, a fairly accurate estimate of income from arts and crafts and sorghum during the festival is $17,000. Figuring that each dollar spent at the festival will change hands at least five times before going out of circulation, Extension Agent Howard estimated that arts and crafts and sorghum sales at the festival added $85,000 to Morgan's economy.

Cane mill in operation on Main Street drew large crowds throughout two-day festival. Bill Short of West Liberty feeds cane stalks into grinding mill. Local residents sold around 1,000 gallons of sorghum and visitors spent $12,000 for mountain handicrafts.

Highlights of the festival aside from the art work and hand craft items on display at the athletic field, were a mule-pulled cane mill on Main Street where visitors could lick the hot syrup straight from the pan, and a wing-ding of a parade featuring two local bands, a bevy of floats, marching Boy and Girl Scouts, a corp of twirlers from Lexington, horses, wagons, and last but not least, Shriners from the El Flasa Temple in Ashland.

And what a show the Shriners put on — Uniformed marchers, crazy cars, antique cars, clowns, mini-bikes, go-carts, a calliope on wheels. The crowds loved it and Parade Marshal Graden N. Walter, the West Liberty City Council, and festival planners have asked this newspaper to publicly express their deep appreciation to the Shriners. Formal letters thanking the Shriners will be mailed later.

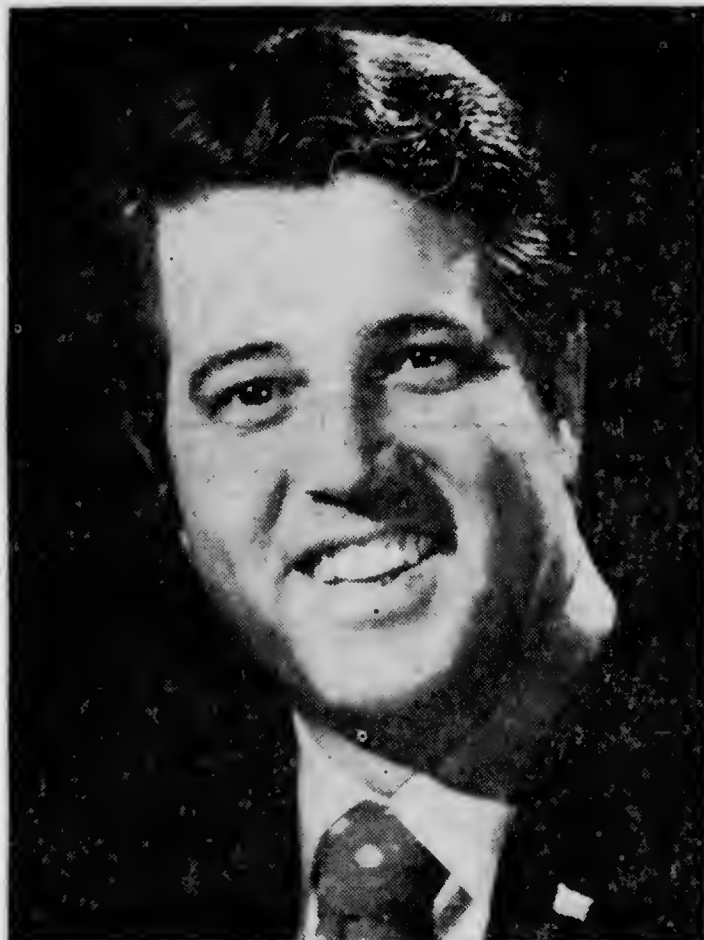

Planners and City fathers also wish to publicly thank the fine Hazel Green Academy Band and the Morgan County High School Band for their cooperation and participation in the parade. Threatening rain and a steady downpour in other parts of the state caused other bands slated to appear in the parade not to make the trip to West Liberty. (A hard downpour of rain fell all day in neighboring Frenchburg.)

Adding lustre to the parade were Miss Kentucky Teenager, Debbie McGuire of Louisville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton McGuire, former Morgan Countians; Miss Ruby Kelly, senior at Morgan County High School, who reigned as the first Sorghum Queen. Miss Kelly is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kelly of Route 3 West Liberty.

Also participating in the parade were the lovely runners-up in the Sorghum Queen contest (Continued on page five)

MR. TAXPAYER

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE NUNN ADMINISTRATION RECORD OF BROKEN PROMISES ON TAXES

--IN KENTUCKY--

1. SEPT. 14, 1967 — NUNN PLEDGES NO NEW TAXES. Republican candidate Louie Nunn pledged he would seek no new taxes if elected governor.
2. DEC. 12, 1967 — NUNN BECOMES GOVERNOR.
3. FEB. 14, 1968 — NUNN PROPOSES 5c SALES TAX; $12.50 AUTO TAGS. Lt. Gov. Wendell Ford asked Nunn to exempt food and medicine from the sales tax. Nunn refused. Tom Emberton (Nunn's campaign aide in 1967; assistant to Gov. Nunn in 1968) helped pass Nunn's tax through the legislature.
4. FEB., 1971 — NUNN PICKS EMBERTON TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR.
5. JULY 6, 1971 — EMBERTON, LIKE CARBON-COPY OF NUNN, MAKES FOOD-TAX PLEDGE. Using Nunn's campaign textbook, Emberton promises voters "food will be exempt from sales tax if I am elected."
6. AUG. 24, 1971 — FORD TELLS EMBERTON AND NUNN "IF YOU'RE SINCERE, LET THE TAX COME OFF NOW." Lt. Gov. Ford tells Tom Emberton, "If you're sincere, join me in asking Gov. Nunn to convene the Legislature to take the 5c sales tax off of food NOW."
7. AUG., 1971 — EMBERTON HIDES UNDER A ROCK; LOUIE SAYS NO TO TAKING OFF TAX. With their insincerity thus exposed, it is clear that in 1971, as in 1967, Emberton and Nunn are trying to fool Kentucky taxpayers.
8. NOV. 2, 1971 — TIME TO VOTE FOR WENDELL FOR GOVERNOR — When Wendell Ford makes promises, he keeps them. Ford led the fight in the 1968 legislature that took the sales tax off of farm machinery. Ford led the fight in the 1970 legislature that took the sales tax off of medicine.

ENGLE'S ANGLE

HILL POEMS FOR HILL PEOPLE

BY JOHN D. ENGLE, JR.

DAWNING

The sleeping world seemed far removed from dawn.
The tired wind slept.
The trees that own my lawn were silent.
The orchestral brook lay still.
The screech owl, hollow-oaked upon the hill, for once forgot his urgent shibboleth.
The morning glories held their bonied breath.
Then, from somewhere high in a quiet tree, a rapid rain of birdsong fell on me.

That was how I learned the sudden way my God turns bleak negation into day.
From doubt's dark pond, the sun, a silver trout, leaped up to see what the singing was about;

and from my inner garden's gray repose, bright faith awoke, unfolding like a rose.

SOCIAL SECURITY—

MEDICARE CHANGE BECOMES EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1

Beginning in January, an older person who goes to the hospital under Medicare will be responsible for the first $68 of his hospital bill — now running about $800 for the average stay by a Medicare beneficiary.

The present hospital deductible is $50 and will remain in effect for all Medicare hospital admissions during the remainder of this year.

In announcing the 1972 deductible, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, Elliot L. Richardson, explained that since hospital costs in calendar year 1970 rose substantially, he is compelled under the law to set a new deductible to become effective next January. The law provides a specific formula for computing the amount of any adjustment in the deductible, he said, and also requires that notice of the upcoming deductible amount be promulgated on or before October 1.

"The action I was required to take today," Secretary Richardson said, "Further emphasized the urgency of action to put a brake on hospital cost escalation." He urged early enactment of H.R. 1, the welfare reform bill now pending before Congress, which includes provisions aimed at controlling health care costs, not just for the Medicare and Medicaid programs but for all consumers.

In addition, he urged early action on the Administration's health program, including its National Health Insurance Partnership Act and Health Maintenance Organization Assistance Act, which also aim at controlling health care costs.

"The general problem of the rising costs of health care," Secretary Richardson said, "is of great concern to the Administration. The rising costs of last year which compelled the action I am taking today illustrates the enormous importance of slowing the rise in health care costs." He added that policies designed to curb these rising costs are being addressed in connection with the design of Phase II of the Administration's wage-price stabilization effort.

With respect to today's announcement, Secretary Richardson said the hospital deductible amount is intended to make the Medicare beneficiary responsible for expenses equivalent to the average cost of one day of hospital care.

Under the formula in the law, the new hospital deductible is based on the ratio between hospital costs in the previous year (1970) and costs in 1966, the first year of Medicare operation. That ratio is then multiplied by $40 and the result rounded to the nearest $4. The result is an increase from $50 to $68.

Secretary Richardson said that when the hospital deductible amount changes next year, the law requires that comparable changes be made in the dollar amounts a Medicare beneficiary pays toward a hospital stay of more than 60 days, or a posthospital extended care stay of more than 20 days. When a Medicare beneficiary has a hospital of more than 60 days, he will pay $17 a day for the 61st through the 90th day, up from the present $15 per day. If he has a posthospital stay of over 20 days in an extended care facility, he will pay $8.50 per day toward the cost of the 21st day through the 100th day, up from the present $7.50 per day.

If he needs to draw on his "lifetime reserve," the reserve of hospital days a beneficiary can draw upon if he ever needs more than 90 days of hospital care in the same benefit period, he will pay $34 for each day used, instead of the present $30 per day.

AND ALL COLLEGE POLLS BUT 1 FAVORS EMBERTON FOR GOVERNOR

Tom Emberton was the winner in four more college elections with less than 12 days remaining in the campaign for Governor bringing his string of wins to 20 in 21 campus polls.

At Western, Emberton polled 677 votes or 58% of the total vote cast. Wendell Ford got 474 votes or 40%. A. B. Chandler had 14 votes and William Smith had 8.

The Thomas More College in Northern Kentucky, Emberton got 207 votes, or 63%. Ford had 81 votes, 25%; Chandler had 10 votes, 3%, and Smith had 5 votes. Thirty-two ballots were cast for individuals who will not appear on the November ballot.

Morgan's Festivals Are To Be Continued

Morgan County's Sorghum Festival was so well attended and so much enjoyed that it is being hailed as an even bigger success than the Dogwood Festival in May. Much credit is due everyone who helped organize and present the festival events.

Already people are talking of "next year's festivals".

And it goes almost without saying that there will be festivals next year, and the next, and probably for years in the future. Certainly, they will be popular, well attended and much enjoyed so long as they are kept rustic and traditional, depicting the ways of pioneer living in rural mountain areas, a reminder of the heritage of hill peoples.

For hill people who have emigrated to crowded congested, and contaminated urban areas like to have a chance to return to simpler and more rustic scenes, reminiscent of a simpler and more contented way of life.

And we think Morgan County should continue the festivals — and follow the same themes as used this year that have proved so enjoyable to so many people.

BURLEY SUPPORT IS $71.50 FOR '71

Price supports for the 1971 burley tobacco crop will average $71.50 per hundred pounds, Senators Cooper and Cook reported from Washington Tuesday. This is about 42¢ above the 1970 burley price support, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The price support loan rates range from 44 cents to 88 cents per pound for the 1971 crop.

which are from 1 cent to 5 cents above last year.

As in past years, growers will offer their tobacco at auction markets in the usual manner, and loans will be made available through producer cooperative associations. Under the poundage quota program now in effect for burley tobacco, farmers who certify that they have not used pesticides containing DDT and TDE on their tobacco can market up to 110 percent of their farm poundage quotas with loans. However, any marketings over a farm's poundage quota will be subtracted from next year's quota.

As in the past, no loans will be offered on any tobacco graded No G (no-grade), U (unsound), W (doubtful keeping order), or scrap. Marketings of these grades, however, will be charged against the quotas for the farms upon which they were produced.

YOUTH INJURED SERIOUSLY IN THURS. WRECK

Mark Litteral, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Litteral of Route 1 West Liberty, was seriously injured in an automobile accident on the Wrigley Hill late last Thursday.

Litteral, a passenger in a car driven by Russell Cox, 17, of White Oak, sustained a fractured pelvis, chipped spine, and other injuries when the car skidded on rain-slickened KY-7 and plunged over the hill.

Litteral was rushed to Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, by Morgan Ambulance Service where he was placed in the intensive care ward.

Cox and three other youths in the vehicle were uninjured.

Principals in the crime are now serving sentences in the penitentiary after having confessed. They are Earl Ray Perkins, 20, of Pomp who was given a life sentence at the May term of court, and Wesley Hibbens, 19, of near West Liberty, who was meted a sentence of 21 years in prison, also at the May term of court.

Blair's sentence was the third prison sentence meted at the October term of court. Last week Samuel D. Owens pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of voluntary manslaughter in the slaying of his neighbor, Ben Adkins of Gordon Ford, and was given a sentence of five years in prison. Also last week Deniz Bolin pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of voluntary manslaughter in the fatal blow he hit his father, Ora Bolin, whom he is alleged to have assaulted with intent to rob, and was meted a sentence of 10 years in prison.

Civil Cases Settled

One civil case was settled out of court and another was continued when called this week.

The damage action of Homer Prater against Logan Lindon resulting from a traffic accident was settled out of court.

The damage action of Vernie Montgomery against Loretta Phipps, also growing out of a traffic accident, was continued until the next term of court.

Grand Jury Report

The grand jury made its final report Tuesday and shortly afterward Judge William E. Kibbey concluded the court term.

The grand jury returned 19 indictments during its six-day session.

Reports of the grand jury follows in full—
"The Grand Jury respectfully reports that it has been in session six days, examined 23 witnesses and returned 19 indictments.
"The Grand Jury further reports that it has examined the Court House and Jail and find as follows—
"The court house building is leaking, but inside the court house is in good condition except for the court room floor buckling. The court house is kept clean. We recommend that the public rest rooms at the jail be locked up at dark. The jail is short on mattresses and blankets. The downstairs has been paneled and is in satisfactory condition. We recommend that more disinfectants be used in the cleaning of the rest rooms."

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Day, Foreman.

CONTRACT IS LET ON DEVELOPMENT OF GRAYSON PARK

GRAYSON, Ky. — A Huntington construction firm has been awarded the contract for development at the Grayson Lake State Park near here.

Gov. Louie B. Nunn, who was scheduled to make the announcement Monday in an appearance at the Rural Electric Cooperative Co. building here, was unable to fly in due to weather conditions.

Parks Commissioner Shirley Palmer Ball, reading Nunn's speech here Monday, said a $230,000 contract for phase one development at Grayson Lake has been awarded to Wilson Construction Co. of Huntington, with construction to begin soon.

Included in the initial phase are new campsites with two playgrounds, two winterized restroom facilities, trail access to the reservoir and an access road from Ky. 7.

The Huntington district U. S. Engineers also built a boat-launching ramp, a picnic area and restrooms and expanded the beach at Grayson as part of initial improvements in the park area.

In the Grayson park's general development plan, later facilities include a lodge, vacation cottages, golf course and swimming pool.

WORK STARTING ON 460 SECTOR

Improvement of US-460 west of Index where it often is flooded by Little Caney Creek is being started this week by the State Highway Department.

The project includes removal of the present low-water bridge over Little Caney Creek about a half-mile west of the intersection of KY-191 and US-460 at Index and replacing it with a 20-foot precast span that will carry the 18-foot roadway above floodwater stages.

The project also will include dredging the creek parallel with US-460, so as to carry off floodwaters faster.

Boyd Blair said Tuesday that work on the US-460 improvement will be started this week.

SHOTS FIRED INTO HOME ON US-460

Law officers were called to the Trace Branch Hill on US-460 Saturday to investigate a mysterious night-time shooting into the home of Jesse Isaacs, who lives within a few yards of the highway on the Morgan County side of the Morgan-Magoffin county line.

Mrs. Isaacs said a car drove up and stopped near the home at about 10 p.m. Friday night and one or more of the three occupants commenced shooting. She said that when she raised a blind in the living room a bullet came through the window and missed her head only a few inches. Then there were other shots into the front of the house.

Sheriff James Brooks said four shots had hit the house, one went into the front door facing, two went in a window, and another into the ceiling. He recovered some of the bullets, and said they were 38 caliber missiles.

In the home at the time were Mr. and Mrs. Isaacs and their son, also two neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Berlin Perkins.

2 MORE ARRESTED IN FOOD STAMP FRAUD

Two more East Kentuckians were arrested last week in connection with a fraudulent food stamp ring—Irene Campbell arrested in Harlan county and Cecil Quinley arrested in Pennington Gap, Va. They had been indicted by the Federal grand jury in Catelettsburg along with Evelyn Harris, who was arrested last week, on charges of illegally acquiring over $30,000 in food stamp over an area of several counties. The U. S. District Attorney said they would be arraigned Nov. 8 in Federal court at London, Ky. Still missing is Joe Oliver, who was indicted at the same time.

CITY AND COUNTY ARE HIT BY RASH OF BURGLARIES

West Liberty and other areas of the county have been plagued by a rash of burglaries the past three weeks and officers are still looking for the culprits.

Following break-ins last Wednesday night at The Courier Publishing Co., Henry Fabric Shop, and the Morgan County Health Department and Democratic Headquarters, officers revealed that these were only the latest in a series of similar incidents in which burglars have raided cash registers in grocery stores, service stations, garages, and stolen appliances at a bottled gas distributorship, and broken into other private property.

The burglars entered the publishing plant sometime after 11 p.m. Wednesday and stole a money box containing about $40, most of it in loose change. Burglars also broke in to Henry Fabric Shop and stole $86.00 from a cash register.

The same night, burglars entered the Morgan County Health Department in the May Building through an upstairs window and also entered Democrat Headquarters in the same building but took nothing of value. The burglars apparently came across rooftops to enter the building.

State Trooper Kenneth Burton said that with few exceptions, the burglaries have been identical in pattern. After gaining entry, the thieves make straight for the cash register or money drawers, collecting all the loose change and bills there, touch nothing else, and leave.

Police say they have no leads. Meanwhile, the Elkfork Lodge near the mouth of Williams Creek — oft raided by vandals and thieves — was burglarized again recently. In an earlier burglary, thieves made off with a new air conditioner and two ritual chairs. This time the burglars absconded with all the silverware in the Lodge kitchen.

Statement To The Voters OF MORGAN COUNTY

Next Tuesday the people of Morgan County will go to the polls to vote for the candidates of their choice to govern the state of Kentucky for the next four years. The Morgan county chairman for Tom Emberton feels that very little more needs to be said in regard to the candidates.

The people of this county are fine, intelligent people and are capable to pick whom they want as governor. The two parties have campaigned hard and may be sometimes too hard! Charges and counter-charges have been brought against each candidate. The Morgan county campaign committee for Tom Emberton has tried, to the best of its knowledge, to conduct this campaign on a high level, using material we know to be true.

We think we have the best man for the position of governor due to his education, experience, youth, personality, capability, and integrity. We are proud of our record in Morgan County the last four years, in regards to roads built and blacktopped (over 85 miles of blacktop, plus raising of US-460 west of Index and creek channeling to eliminate flooding of the important thoroughfare), health and welfare programs (state assistance for the new hospital) education (state assistance for the new high school), vocational training, (federal assistance for the new vocational building), correctional institutions (the most modern in the world — Woodbend Boys Camp), and most of all, we feel the people working for Tom Emberton have the interest of Morgan County at heart and not personal gain or selfish interests, and have the experience to get the job done.

We know there are important projects to finish and start, such as an all out effort to improve the local conditions in regard to law and order, completion of roads started and finishing the black-top roads that have been started during the present administration. The next 4 years will be the most important in the history of Morgan County with the completion of Cave Run Reservoir and the beginning of connecting roads to the inter-state highways and Mountain Parkway, completion of the high school and hospital, new vocational school, and with a successful program of blacktop roads as in the last 4 years, most all roads in the county will be completed or started.

Please put your family, Morgan County and your state first in mind on Tuesday, Nov. 2nd. VOTE THE EMBERTON AND HOST TICKET.

Pol. Adv. paid for by Morgan County Republican Campaign Committee, D. R. Keeton, Treas.

BILLY GRAHAM FILM SLATED DECEMBER 1, 2, 3

"THE RESTLESS ONES," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown in West Liberty on Dec. 1, 2, 3 at the Morgan County High School auditorium.

With the accent on youth, this feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teenage crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "THE RESTLESS ONES" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to our social problems.

Here is a film which dares to be different, a story which will stir the heart and mind. Having seen "THE RESTLESS ONES," you will never be the same.

As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers. The Christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teenage situation, cleanly and without wailing.

Swift-moving plot episodes highlight the opportunities facing the church.

Screen writer James Collier has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teenagers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World Wide Pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a "breakthrough" in "THE RESTLESS ONES."

Though overcast and misty both days, the rain did not start falling in earnest until after all the main events were completed Saturday. Shortly after the parade ended, the drizzle turned into a downpour.

Political campaigners, mostly Democrats, mingled with the crowds throughout the day Saturday and 7th District Congressman Carl D. Perkins, greeted by most local people as "Carl," was a visitor at the festival Saturday morning.

Souvenir items playing up the sorghum-making theme, went like hotcakes as did 2-pound pokes of corn meal ground on the spot by Willie Ison at his grist mill at the athletic field.

Sponsored by the Margaret Stacy Guild of the Methodist Church, Mr. Ison sold 407 bags of fresh ground corn meal for 50 cents per poke. Four hundred and eighty souvenir jugs made by famed Bybee Pottery Factory and each filled with a pint of Morgan County molasses were sold out by midmorning Saturday. The jugs sold for $2.00 each.

Other enterprising citizens who made their own souvenir jugs also did a brisk business, many selling their entire stock.

Mrs. Mary K. Motley, president of the Woman's Club, reported that nearly 250 of the club's handmade souvenir cook books were sold at the festival. The cook books were sold for $4.00 each.

Winner of the downtown business window decoration contest was Martin's Department Store, with an old-fashioned fireside scene prepared by Martin's employees with antique items from their own homes. Second place winner was Elam Rexall Drug with an antiques display and old photographs depicting Morgan County history.

While arts and crafts drew the crowds to the athletic field, the window decorations and the cane mill in operation drew visitors back downtown.

County Extension Agent Douglas Howard made arrangements for the mill, which drew large crowds continually throughout the two days. Ira Ison did the making with the help of Everett Day, Bill Short, Clarence Litteral, Wes Hibbens, and Mitchell Trusty, and other volunteer workers.

Paul Beck, member of the planning committee, expressed thanks on behalf of the entire committee to the Woodsbend Boys Camp boys and staff and to Morgan County High vocational agriculture students and their teacher, Larry Smith, for assisting in erecting tents for booths at the athletic field, and to Ed Geveland and Charles Campbell for wiring the tents for electric lights.

The festival received statewide attention in daily newspapers and on area television. Elated planners already are evaluating this year's festival and planning ahead for next year's.

BLUE DEVILS DOWN BATH COUNTY; PLAY FLEMING AT HOME FRIDAY

The Morgan County High Blue Devils chalked up grid victory number three Friday night at Owingsville, downing Bath County High, 16-6.

Coach Ed Zaremba was pleased with the victory, but unhappy about numerous mistakes which brought several long-yardage penalties in the latter part of the game.

Both Blue Devil touchdowns came in the first quarter, the first 40 seconds after kickoff when end Jeff Brown blocked a Bath County punt on their 30 yard line, scooped up the ball and galloped for the TD. Fullback Johnny Tate carried the ball for a two-point conversion.

The second TD came after Jeff Brown caught a pass from Greg Phillips in the flat, laterated to halfback Mike Blanton, and Blanton ran 48 yards to the Bath County 2-yard line. Quarterback Phillips scored the TD on an end sweep and then tossed to Brown in the end zone for another two-pointer.

Lewis County's TD came in the third period, but with this exception were never able to penetrate the Blue Devil 35-yard line.

The Blue Devils, with two straight victories under their belts will play at home Friday night when they meet a good Lewis County team. Coach Zaremba said he is hoping for a good turnout of fans, as the contest is expected to be a good one.

The Devils play their final game next Friday at home against Fleming County.

ODDS AND ENDS

By Earl Kinner, Jr.

Last Thursday, The Louisville Courier-Journal published on page 20 of its second section an article by C-J staff writer Frank Ashley announcing Morgan County's Sorghum Festival (held in West Liberty last weekend). In addition to describing the events planned for the festival and the reasons that motivated it, Mr. Ashley also included a good deal of background information on the county, including a rather dismal-sounding assessment of the county's economy.

Unfortunately, Mr. Ashley, obviously a product of the big city, may have made us country folk sound a little more rustic than we really are. Anyway, this story rubbed a lot of local folks the wrong way. Even this hard to ruffle country editor didn't much care for his choice of words in describing West Liberty. A "small, story-book poor mountain town," he called it. The upshot of it all is that several persons have suggested that we write an editorial refuting Mr. Ashley's story.

Wish we could. But with one or two minor exceptions, Mr. Ashley's story is factual—stated a little too baldly perhaps to suit local folks, but nonetheless true.

According to Mr. Ashley's story, Morgan "is a one-industry county whose already weak economy is based largely on the uncertain future of small tobacco crops and welfare checks."

"Four thousand six hundred of the county's dwindling population of 10,000 receive welfare assistance. About 822 county households, accounting for 3,200 persons, receive $57,000 a month in food stamp benefits; 1,419 receive $64,000 a month in public assistance benefits to the aged, disabled, and blind and dependent children."

"The remaining residents make their livings from subsistence farming, government jobs, the school system or by operating the county's modest shops and stores."

"The county government operates on about $36,000 a year from revenues based on one of the lowest tax rates in the state—9½ cents per $100 assessment."

"City government, also pinched for funds, operates a small police and fire department and city hall on about $57,000 a year."

Since most of Mr. Ashley's information has been reported at one time or another in this newspaper, few Morgan folk are unaware of it. But by penning a description of Morgan County solely in economic terms, Mr. Ashley—though his facts are accurate—failed in his story to represent us altogether accurately. The sad thing about it, in a way, is that unless by chance he was born and reared in a rural area himself he'll probably never understand why.

Rev. E. T. Nickell was surprised the other evening to find cornfield beans blooming in his corn patch behind his home at Florress. He also picked a cooker full of mature beans and reported enough young beans growing on the vines to make another mess if the present summer-like weather holds. Here it is October 28 and still no frost to speak of.

We have been informed of an eye-catching Halloween display on the front porch of a North Main Street home. Described as arresting in daylight, the decorations are even more eye-catching when illuminated by a turning color wheel after dark, we are told. Unfortunately, the task of getting out a newspaper, covering late-breaking stories, and attempting to get The Courier out in time to meet a delivery deadline on additional printing machinery to be installed this week prevents us from getting a photo. Anyway, look for it as you drive by.

The local political pot is sizzling hot. That's an understatement. Thus, an interesting report on how come a live elephant didn't get to take part in

BANKERS ASSN. LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR BOYS CAMP

Kentucky Bankers Association has announced the official opening of a three-month drive, October through December, to raise funds to meet financial needs of Trooper Island, a 34.5-acre island camp in Dale Hollow Reservoir near Albany, Kentucky, established by Kentucky State Troopers for underprivileged boys. Announcement of the drive was made by Ralph Fontaine, executive vice president of Kentucky Bankers Association.

As an introduction to the drive, and in response to the efforts of the Kentucky Bankers Association, Governor Lott B. Nunn proclaimed September, the month of the annual K.B.A. convention, Trooper Island Month. The proclamation was presented at the convention.

Ray Harm Print To Spearhead Drive

As an initial step in the fund-raising drive, Kentucky wildlife artist Ray Harm, in cooperation with the Kentucky Bankers Association, had dedicated his most current, and what he terms "one of his favorite" paintings, the "Great Horned Owl," to Trooper Island, Wood Island, president of the Frame House Gallery, wildlife art center in Louisville, has announced that the gallery is working with the bankers and is donating 1,000 special Trooper Island Edition prints, signed by the artist, and bearing a distinctive Trooper Island-Kentucky Bankers Association seal for the drive. These will be the only prints with this special seal, thus making them special collectors' items. The "Great Horned Owl" is a 21"x27" print.

Prints are available to those persons making a "minimum donation of $100 plus $5.50 for taxes and shipping". The entire amount of the sale goes to Trooper Island. All amounts over $60 are tax deductible. (Example — on a donation of $100, $40 may be taken as a tax deductible donation.)

Too many commencement speakers have been telling graduating classes they should go out and fight the world. Better advice would be to go out and try to get along with the world.

VOTE FOR JOE STACY DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR STATE SENATOR

To Morgan County Voters:

This is to appeal to Morgan County Voters to go to the polls Nov. 2 and vote for Joe Stacy for State Senator.

Joe is truly deserving of our support. He has always worked hard for Morgan County both in the Legislature and in public life. His performance as legislator earned him the respect of his fellow legislators. He worked hard for the things which would benefit our people; he stood firm on certain issues in the Legislature when weaker people bowed to pressures by certain groups. And, most important, his performance was such as to bring a good reflection to Morgan County.

We are justly proud of Joe Stacy, we are indeed fortunate to have a man such as he to represent us in Frankfort.

Joe has earned the right to return to Frankfort as State Senator.

We urge you to join with us to work and vote for Joe Stacy for State Senator Nov. 2.

FORD HEADQUARTERS DENIES G. O. P. AD AS A COUNTERFIET

It has come to my attention that some Republican Campaign organizations are sponsoring advertisements that include the contents of a leaflet they claim was produced and distributed in Western Kentucky by the Ford for Governor Committee. I categorically state that this leaflet is a complete counterfeit. It was not produced, paid for or distributed by the Ford for Governor Committee, by Wendell Ford nor by any supporter of Wendell Ford.

This leaflet originated in Eastern Kentucky by opponents of Wendell Ford. It was never distributed in Western Kentucky. It was designed to set

The big Sorghum Festival parade here last Saturday will have to wait — a year or so at least.

The cane mill which made such a big hit on West Liberty's Main Street during the Sorghum Fest was a hodgepodge of parts belonging to different people. Douglas Howard, who was in charge of the mill, said the idea was to have an authentic old-time mill. To accomplish this, it was necessary to utilize Virgil Lewis' grinding mill sweep, and tubs; Everett Day's juice regulator, Ira Ison's furnace, Zulus Lewis' pan, and Glen Johnson's smoke stack. The mules and horses to power the mill were provided by Merle McGuire and Sheriff James Brooks. Mitchell Trusty and Wes Hiberns took care of the mules and horses and kept a supply of cane available. Douglas Howard provided the cane, and Ira Ison, Bill Short, Everett Day, Clarence Litterall, and others tended the mill and made the sorghum.

Two Great Reasons Veterans Are For Wendell Ford For Governor

1. Ford Served.

Wendell Ford entered the Army of the United States at age 19, as a buck private, and served his country during W.W. II. He was discharged from the active Army on June 28, 1946, as T/Sgt. On June 7, 1949, Wendell Ford enlisted in the Kentucky National Guard as a Sgt. He was commissioned 2nd Lt. in the Kentucky National Guard on August 8, 1949, and promoted to 1st Lt. September 2, 1952. He was discharged from both Army National Guard and as a Reservist of the Army on July 6, 1962. Wendell Ford is a member of the American Legion, James L. Yates Post No. 9, Owensboro.

2. Ford Has A Workable Plan To Help Returning Veterans Find Jobs.

As governor, Wendell Ford will appoint a special job-skill force to help place returning veterans in jobs. The job-skill force will establish match-ups for job openings and skills in every section of the State, will contact Kentucky employers to locate jobs for veterans, and will require all government contractors to list job openings. Veterans will receive preference in filling open State positions. Also, he will ask the General Assembly to exempt from State income tax the first $4,000 of military retirement pay being received by Kentucky's resident veterans. As governor, Wendell Ford will greatly expand Kentucky's vocational education opportunities, and will see that the veteran receives priority for vocational training.

Former MCHS English Teacher's Short Story Winner In Natl Contest

Mrs. Mildred Whitt McLain of Morehead, a former Morgan County High School English teacher, has been designated one of 15 $100-prize winners in a national Teachers Writing Competition sponsored by the National Association (NEA) Journal, "Today's Education."

Mrs. McLain's prize-winning short story, entitled "Singing In Appalachia," concerned an incident in the classroom when another Morgan County writer and poet, John D. Engle, was a sophomore English student in Mrs. McLain's class at Morgan County High School.

Mrs. McLain, a daughter of former Licking Valley Courier Editor and Mrs. Bernard E. Whitt, was recently honored by her former student, Mr. Engle, who dedicated his recently-published book of poems, "Modern Odyssey," to her.

Mrs. McLain told this newspaper recently that Mr. Engle's success as a writer "is no surprise to me. He is simply fulfilling the promise he displayed as a student." Added Mrs. McLain, "Morgan County can be very proud of him as I am honored to have his book dedicated to me."

Publicity, like fire, can be friend or foe.

Guests at a luncheon sponsored by the local Democrat women's organization were wives of the Democrat nominees for Governor, and Drexel Davis of Frankfort, Democrat candidate for State Treasurer, whose parents and grandparents were Morgan County natives. Shown above from left, are Sandy McKenzie, Morgan County Campaign Chairwoman; Mrs. Wendell Ford; Mrs. Julian Carroll; Candidate Davis, and Winfred Howard, Morgan Campaign Chairman. Seated behind Howard are Mrs. Martha Stacy, wife of Sen. Joe D. Stacy of West Liberty, and Mrs. Norma Hogge, 7th District Campaign Chairwoman.

Julian Carroll, Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives and Democrat candidate for Lt. Governor, campaigned here Saturday during the Sorghum Festival. Late in arriving due to unsafe flying conditions, Carroll went on a handshaking tour of town before leaving for a speaking engagement in Louisville. He was seen off at the airport by local Democrat leaders: front row from left, Marshall Gibson, Winfred Howard, County Campaign Chairman; County Judge Gene Allen; Carroll; Joe Lykins, Young Democrats Ford-Carroll co-chairman; Woodrow Stammer, County Democrat Chairman; Woodford May, unopposed candidate for State Representative from this district; back row: Sheriff James Brooks and Senator Joe D. Stacy.

DEMOCRAT CAMPAIGNERS ACTIVE HERE DURING SORGHUM FESTIVAL

Democrat campaigners were active here during the Sorghum Festival.

Visitors here for the Sorghum Festival included Julian Carroll, Democrat nominee for Lt. Governor, Mrs. Wendell Ford and Mrs. Julian Carroll, wives of the Democratic nominees for governor and lieutenant governor; 7th District Congressman Carl D. Perkins; Drexel Davis, nominee for State Treasurer, and his wife from Frankfort, Mrs. Norma Hogge, 7th District Democrat Campaign Chairwoman of Morehead, and Phyllis Stanley, 7th District Campaign Co-Chairwoman of Prestonsburg.

The local Democrat Women for Ford-Carroll organization hosted a coffee at the Morgan House Cafeteria at 10 a.m. Saturday to honor Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Ford. However, due to overcast, the candidates' wives were unable to fly from Frankfort as scheduled and arrived in West Liberty too late to attend the coffee.

Congressman Perkins and Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Drexel Davis were greeted at the coffee by about 75 local ladies, and Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Carroll were guests later at a luncheon at Don's Restaurant, also sponsored by the local Democratic women.

In the meantime, Congressman Perkins and Candidate Davis made separate handshaking tours of town and mingled with the crowds gathered at the trading booths at the high school athletic field.

Congressman Perkins left West Liberty around noon to meet a speaking engagement at Campton where he dedicated the new Wolfe County High School.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Carroll, who arrived by car about noon, toured the activities at the high school athletic field, mingled with the crowd and greeted visitors at the festival. Later they rode in the Sorghum Festival parade and joined other Democrat candidates and dignitaries and local Democrat officials at the Luncheon at Don's Restaurant, where around 50 persons turned out to greet them.

Following a prayer by Rev. John Oldfield, Jr., Mrs. Ethel Marie Phillips presented Mrs. Ford with a needlework picture of a rooster made by Mrs. Ken Caudill of Lexington, and Mrs. Bernice Allen presented Mrs. Carroll with a Morgan County Sorghum Festival Cook Book. Later, Mrs. Frieda Franklin and Mrs. Dorothy Perkins presented Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Hogge and Mrs. Drexel Davis with souvenir jug made by Bybee Pottery and filled with Morgan County molasses.

Shortly afterward, Julian Carroll, who had been grounded due to weather conditions at Harlan following a campaign visit there arrived at the West Liberty Airport where he was greeted by local Democrat leaders and escorted on a tour of the exhibits and displays at the athletic field and a brief hand-

GOP CANDIDATE AT FESTIVAL

J. Robert Miller of Tompkinsville, Republican candidate for State Auditor and present Kentucky Commissioner of Agriculture, attended the Sorghum Festival here Saturday.

Miller, who was accompanied by his son, campaigned on behalf of his candidacy and toured the arts and crafts displays at the high school athletic field and took in the other activities Saturday.

Taking time out from a handshaking tour of town, Miller made a brief campaign talk on Main Street at which time he complimented Morgan County on the success of their first Sorghum Festival.

SOME DOMESTICS FAIL TO REPORT EARN FOR SS

Some domestic workers in the Ashland District are still not receiving social security credit for their work, according to Ashland district manager Thomas B. Thompson.

"Somehow many people have the idea that reporting the earnings of maids, cooks, or gardeners and the like is voluntary," Thompson said. "This is not the case. If a worker in a private home earns $50 or more in a calendar quarter, the work is covered and the earnings must be reported."

Not only is it required by law, Thompson pointed out, but it may be very important to the worker involved. Reporting earnings properly can affect the amount of benefits a person receives. Not reporting might cause a worker to receive smaller benefits, or in some cases, no benefits at all.

"Proper reporting of earnings requires the cooperation of worker and employer alike," Thompson said. "Each should understand his responsibilities as well as his rights, and do his best to abide by the law."

"If a worker or an employer has a question regarding his status, he should contact the social security office," Thompson concluded. "We will be happy to furnish reporting instructions or answer questions on domestic employment."

The Ashland number to call is 325-7666.

Isn't it time the people had a governor?

Republican failures 1968-1971

- ✓ Government payroll increased by $60 million a year.
- ✓ Over 90,000 unemployed Kentuckians.
- ✓ 5% sales tax.
- ✓ License fees more than doubled.

Isn't it time someone really cared?

The wage earner and family man can't continue supporting this kind of Republican administration. We need a governor who cares enough to do something about the high cost of government. Someone who will do something about unemployment and taxes. We need Wendell Ford.

Wendell Ford believes that our taxes must be changed to give the working man and woman a break. He has already led a successful fight to get the sales tax taken off prescription medicines, farm implements, and certain automobile transfers. The next step is to get the tax off groceries.

Join the revolt against high taxes and wasteful government. Support Wendell Ford.

Isn't it time the people had a Governor?

HOLLIDAY

By Harrison Holliday

Oct. 18 — On Monday, Oct. 11, Louie Randolph and his daughter, Roberta, of Lockland, Ohio came and took my wife, Myrtle, and me to Ohio to spend some time with our children.

While there we were guests of Mrs. Shelby Hasty, Mrs. Lloyd Ross, Mrs. Louie Randolph, Edward and Lawrence Holliday.

We visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Holliday, the son of my brother, Charley Holliday of Malone, now deceased. They were both at home and we had a chat before we went back to the home of our daughter, Lena Hasty.

On Friday night, we were at the home of our daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Randolph. Two of my nieces, Mrs. Stanley Brown and her husband and Mrs. Avery Herrman, came over and took pictures of us all. Shelby Hasty and all of his family but Jean, who is on vacation in Florida, were there. I had not seen my nieces for several years. We all had a nice chat.

On Saturday, Louie and Bonnie Randolph brought us home. We went to West Liberty to do shopping and they went home Sunday morning. We enjoyed our visit with them all who did so many things to make us happy.

Dewey Caudill and wife were visiting his sister Mrs. Martha Endicott of this place. He called me by phone and we had a chat. He thought the Baltimore Orioles would win the pennant but I told him I thought the Pirates would win and they did but it was a close game 2 to 1.

Harold Eakes and Douglas Holliday stopped for a chat Sunday and they said might be some drilling done in this section before winter. I hope they are right.

Prayer and get-well wishes for Homer Haney.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Rev. Ed Elliott. God called you on July 14, 1968. The gardener walked in my garden one day.

He was gathering flowers for the Masters Bouquet. There were blossoms by millions.

So sweet and so fair, And the one that he took. Was the most wonderful there. A heart of gold stopped beating.

Two loving eyes closed in rest. God broke my heart to prove to me.

That he always takes the best. I know you had to leave me. But you did not go alone.

For part of me went with you. The day God took you home. To some you are forgotten. To others you are just out of the path.

But to us who loved and lost you. Your memory will always last. Its a lonesome home without you.

And sad has been the way. For life and home is not the same.

Since you were called away. — So sadly missed — Elizabeth Elliott.

To my children and the church. When you see I am through with this old clay house of mine.

When there is no more guiding lights through my windows to shine. Just box it up gently and lay it away.

With the other clay houses of yesterday. Remember children, it is too late to mend.

A badly built house, when you come to the end. But to you who are building, and are still on the line.

Make all of your changes, while still there is time. You may ask what material is best to select.

San Diego Visitor

At Sorghum Festival

Vina Hanmaek of White Oak, who was in charge of decorating business windows for the Sorghum Festival, was joined by her daughter, Mrs. Jan Rugar of San Diego, Calif., who made the trip by train.

The Rugar grow avocados, nectarines, limes, lemons and oranges on their California farm — quite a contrast from beans, gourds, sorghum cane, etc. found in Morgan County.

She gathered a lot of gourds, pumpkins, etc. to take back with her. Also, while here she enjoyed a fox hunt, and gathered possum grapes, acorns, sumac pods, etc. to take back with her.

Mrs. Rugar also helped her mother judge the Sorghum Queen contest.

65 WOMEN PARTICIPATE IN CANDY WORKSHOP HERE

Morgan County Extension
Homemakers sponsored two Candy Workshops October 15 at the Licking Valley RECC.

This was an educational program presenting basic methods and techniques of candy making for the members of the Homemakers and other interested women. The two workshops were conducted by Paul Baker, educational director of Candy Making Institute of Lat-throp, Mo.

Those present learned the practical, easy and fun way of making professional type candies using equipment they already have in their own kitchens.

Mr. Baker made some of the favorite candies such as fondant, cream centers, toffees, chocolate-covered cherries, coconut bonbons, dipped pretzels, bark clusters, party mints, molded candies and others. Members of the group had the opportunity to work with the different types and to taste the finished products.

Candy making is probably one of the most outstanding projects of interest to all people; both young and old, male and female, they find it most interesting and delightful. It is an art in which you can develop skills and produce unbelieveable candies. These will make your neighbors and friends "ah!"
with envy and ask for your recipe.

Candymaking is a challenge to the mind and body and is good therapy. This is a project which you may use at any time during the year. It may serve as a gift, favorite for teas, parties, weddings or holidays, or a way of using your talents to supplement the family income.

Here are some candy making tips which you may find useful: Read recipe carefully and follow instructions. Weight of pans in cooking candies will vary with type of candy. Temperature is most important to produce quality candies. Cook candy at a rather slow boil unless directed otherwise. White spots on candy is called sugar bloom and is caused by too high heat. Most candies need to go through ripening stage after being made to produce top quality candy. Scraping candy from pan when pouring may cause a grainy texture. Some candies such as fudge and fondant should be kneaded. This softens and changes the texture.

Do you make chocolate-covered candies? Mr. Baker showed how to make chocolate dipping to give the commercial type look and to completely alleviate the use of paraffin.

A DAY FAVORS TOM EMBERTON

Dear citizen of Morgan Co-

I, being a lifelong citizen to speak in favor of my fellow citizens.

I, being a disabled veteran for seventeen years and the father of seven sons, want what's best for their future in this our beloved county and Com-

I have learned much in the last four years of studying the issues and affairs of our local and I want our seven sons to be an integral part of a society that's literally free of crime and anarchism. Therefore, I feel that Tom Emberton, Host Team

Morgan County with the best government this state has ever had.

Letter I received contained what seemed to me to be very deceiving issues, convinced me to write and speak out, and so I have spoken.

Now my friends, search your heart, then go to the polls and

Honorable Tom Emberton-Host
Team in office at Frankfort, ward.

Thank you ladies and gentle-

SORGHUM FESTIVAL IN PICTURES

Arts and crafts booths did brisk business at festival.

One of Eastern Kentucky's finest, 7th District Congressman Carl D. Perkins of Hindman was a visitor in West Liberty Saturday during the Sorghum Festival. Perkins, who drove from Washington, spent most of Saturday morning meeting and talking with citizens on West Liberty streets and at the high school athletic field where many festival activities were taking place. Here he greets a pretty Morgan County Miss on Main Street prior to the big parade. Congressman Perkins later drove to Campton where he dedicated the new Wolfe County High School, and then drove to South Shore, Ky. for another speaking engagement that evening.

Among candidates visiting here during the Sorghum Festival was Drexel Davis, Democrat candidate for State Treasurer, who has many ties in Morgan County. Davis, former clerk of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, is son of former Morgan Countians, Mrs. Myrtle Stacy Davis, now of Shelbyville, and the late Forrest Davis. Candidate Davis' grandfather was Sanford Davis of Jones Creek, a former Morgan County Judge. Here the Democrat nominee, accompanied by Morgan Campaign Chairwoman Sandy McKenzie (facing camera) greets citizens on Main Street prior to the Sorghum Festival Parade. Davis, who once confided that he holds a particularly warm place in his heart for the home county of his forebears, proves it by returning often. He was accompanied to West Liberty by his wife, Sarah.

Attention: Mr. John Alden

Gentlemen:

November 2, 1971 is a significant date for all Kentuckians. On that date Kentucky voters will have an opportunity to chart a progressive course for our Commonwealth in the years ahead. I think they are going to do just that. They are going to elect Wendell Ford as Governor, Julian Carroll as Lieutenant Governor, the entire Democratic State Ticket and an overwhelming majority in both Houses of the General Assembly.

Because I believe so strongly in the promise held out to Kentucky by the Democratic Party and its candidates, I want to assure you that I shall be campaigning as vigorously as I can to bring about the victory.

The Ford-Carroll ticket will provide the vigorous, far-sighted and energetic leadership our Commonwealth so desperately needs to overcome the problems now facing her. With that leadership confirmed by Kentucky voters, the Commonwealth will surely take its place in the front rank of States in the years to come.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Fellow Kentuckian:

November 2 is a very important day on the calendar. On that day we decide who will be the leaders of our Commonwealth for the next four years.

Wendell Ford and Julian Carroll head a ticket of capable and experienced leaders. Thelma Stovall, Ed Hancock, Drex Davis, Mary Louise Foust, Lyman Ginger, Wendell Butler, and Frances Jones Mills are devoted to serving the people of Kentucky.

Wendell Ford, Julian Carroll, and their running mates will fight for the rights of the people of Kentucky.

The real issue in every election is people. We owe it to ourselves and to all the people of Kentucky to elect Wendell Ford, Julian Carroll, and all our fine Democratic Candidates. They'll do the job for us in the next four years--let's do the job for them on Election Day.

Sincerely,

To The Voters of Kentucky:

It has been my pleasure to work with the Democratic candidate for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Wendell Ford and Julian Carroll, in the interest of promoting Kentucky through the years.

They are dedicated men, who are knowledgeable and experienced in the affairs of State Government where they have served in responsible positions of leadership. Wendell Ford and Julian Carroll would give all Kentuckians the efficient, honest and progressive administration which is basic, if we are to move Kentucky forward in the crucial years ahead.

On November 2 the voters of the Commonwealth of Kentucky will have an opportunity to cast their votes for an outstanding group of candidates who will, upon being elected, render excellent service and bring honor and distinction to our Commonwealth.

Our candidate for Governor, Wendell H. Ford, will make an outstanding Governor. He has the necessary legislative experience, ability and training to fill this office with distinction and will establish a superb record as Governor of our State.

Julian Carroll, in addition to his legislative experience, is an eminent lawyer and is well prepared to serve as Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky.

Dr. Lyman V. Ginger is recognized throughout the United States as a great educator and will serve splendidly as Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mrs. Frances Jones Mills is a tireless worker and has clearly demonstrated this fact down through the years. She is admirably qualified to serve as Clerk of the State Court of Appeals.

Mary Louise Foust is a noted professional auditor who has proved her ability during her service as State Auditor and will continue to do so upon being reelected to this post.

Thelma Stovall is loved by everyone in Kentucky and has established outstanding records in all of her assignments and will, in my opinion, render the same fine service as Secretary of State.

Drexell "Drex" Davis is well established in politics in Kentucky and is recognized throughout the state as a dedicated public official. He will perform the duties of State Treasurer in an excellent manner.

Wendell P. Butler, our nominee for Agriculture Commissioner, has a solid record upon which to run and will again carry out the responsibilities of this office most effectively.

Ed Hancock is one of Kentucky's great lawyers and will serve as Attorney General in such a manner as to soon become recognized as one of our outstanding lawyers to serve in this post.

We should get the vote out and elect our entire Democratic ticket consisting of all of those named above, together with all of the Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives and the State Senate.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket. We will have a great victory on November 2.

Combs endorses Ford at Democratic rally

By BILL BILLITER
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

Former Gov. Bert T. Combs last night told a cheering Democratic fundraising rally in Louisville that Lt. Gov. Wendell Ford is a man of "ability" and "integrity" and that he unqualifiedly supports Ford for governor.

Ford defeated Combs for the Democratic nomination for governor in the May 25 primary, and since that time, Combs has appeared on stage with Ford several times, but never mentioned him by name.

"I didn't say specifically I was for Wendell Ford, but I say it now," Combs told those attending the $25-a-plate "Rally Round the Rooster" rally at Louisville's Convention Center.

The audience roared with applause as Combs mentioned Ford's name. Combs wryly noted that Ford had once been his executive assistant "and there have been times when I feel I trained him too well."

Combs said Ford "is a tremendously hard worker, and take it from me, he's a hell of a campaigner." Combs then warmly praised Ford, saying: "He has experience and ability; he has integrity, and what is very important, he is the choice of Democrats across this state."

"I introduce to you the man who is going to be your next governor, the honorable Wendell Ford."

Ford thanked Combs for the "overwhelming" introduction, then proceeded to deliver a speech that sharply criticized Republican Gov. Louie B. Nunn, GOP gubernatorial nominee Tom Emberton and the national Republican Party.

In denouncing "Nunn and Tommy," Ford predicted that Democrats in Kentucky would sweep this year's election and win "by no less than 100,000 votes" on Nov. 2.

Ford spoke at the fund-raising dinner at Convention Center after a $100-a-person reception held at Stouffer's Louisville Inn. During the dinner, House Speaker Julian Carroll, the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, and all other Democratic candidates for statewide office were presented to the audience.

Carroll delivered a fiery speech roasting the Republican administration, and his speech was frequently interrupted by applause and shouts of "Give 'em hell, Julian."

Ford's speech also assailed the Republican administration. Ford said Nunn had prohibited the Kentucky GOP from having an "open" primary last spring.

"We saw, during the primary, Republicans denied their own freedom of choice at the polls, a denial that places the Republican nominee under single domination," said Ford.

"My opponent (Emberton) owes his nomination not to the people, but to the special interests of the Nunn administration. My opponent will be obligated and responsive not to the people, but to the special interests of the Nunn administration."

"Wendell Ford's obligation will be to every Kentuckian," Ford added.

Ford said a Democratic victory in Kentucky would signal to the nation the beginning of a "dump Nixon" movement in 1972. Ford criticized President Nixon's economic record, saying "the little people were first in a squeeze and now they're in a freeze."

In predicting a 100,000-vote victory in the gubernatorial race, Ford said, "I can hear the thunder! I can hear the rooster crow!"

Tax Relief From Republicans?

NO WAY

Reduce Auto Tags? NO!

Louie Nunn Raised
Them From
$5.00 to $12.50

Question
Are there any service charges or fees, such as for auto license tags, that you think should be increased or decreased?

Answer
EMBERTON — "No, I know of no license fees or any others that I'm recommending any change in."

Reduce Income Taxes? NO!

Question
"Do you believe any changes should be made in the state's present income-tax arrangement, such as possibly abolishing exemption of the amount paid in federal income tax?"

Answer
EMBERTON — "At this point in time, I see no reason why there should be any necessity for it (changes in the state's income-tax arrangement)." He said there are no changes that he would advocate

City - County Revenue - Sharing? NO!

Question
Do you favor state government's sharing some of its tax money with city and county governments, regardless of fate of proposed federal revenue sharing?

Answer
EMBERTON — Under our present structure, I don't see how it (state-local revenue sharing) can be worked out."

All questions and answers are printed verbatim from an interview with the candidates in the Louisville Courier-Journal.

New Taxes? YES!

Question
Do you support any new tax,
such as a severance tax?

Answer
EMBERTON — "I favor the levying of a severance tax on coal, oil and natural gas which is mined in Kentucky." He said Kentucky is rapidly becoming the nation's No. 1 coal producer and a severance tax on coal "would give an expanded source of revenue as we move up the ladder of coal producers."

Hundreds Employed Since The Freeze

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 25, 1971

State employes top 30,000 mark again

By WILLIAM BRADFORD
Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky.—The total number of state employes has climbed past the 30,000 mark again, about 300 more than when Gov. Louie B. Nunn ordered a freeze and cutback in jobs two years ago. As of the quarter that ended June 30, Personnel Department records show 26,455 permanent full-time employes, 2,187 seasonal full-time workers and 2,085 others, for a total of 30,727. The "other" category covers temporary, emergency and part-time (both permanent and seasonal) employes. For comparison, the figures for June 1969—shortly before Nunn ordered his freeze and cutback—were 25,599 permanent, 3,208 seasonal and 1,588 other, for a total of 30,395.

And when compared with four years ago—during the final year of former Democratic Gov. Edward T. Breathitt's term—the latest figures show a 2,738 increase in total number of employes. Broken down by category, the 1971 figures show 2,836 more permanent employes than in 1967, 785 fewer seasonal workers and 687 more other employes.

Every four years there are charges that the incumbent governor is handing out jobs as favors to drum up support for the candidacy of the man that governor would like to succeed him.

The total number of state employes now as compared to four years ago reflects an average increase of 2.5 per cent a year, but the boost over last year's total of 28,774 represents a 6 per cent jump.

The seasonal and other jobs are those most often mentioned as being handed out for political gain since the control over them is not so strict as over permanent full-time jobs under the merit system.

But the 4,272 employes now in such jobs actually number 100 fewer than was the case four years ago.

The high point in employes in those two categories was 4,796 in 1969, when the only statewide political race was for auditor. In that contest, Democrat Mary Louise Foust defeated James Thompson, the Republican Nunn had appointed to the post upon the death of Clyde Conley.

The total number of seasonal and other

(not permanent or full-time) employes dropped from 4,370 in 1967, Breathitt's last year, to 3,066 in 1968, Nunn's first year. Then it went to 4,796 in 1969, dropped to 3,436 in 1970 and rose to 4,272 this year.

The total number of permanent full-time employes for that period went from 23,619 in 1967 to 23,005 in 1968, 25,599 in 1969, 25,416 in 1970 and 26,455 this year.

The decline in all categories for 1968 was a result of mass firings of Democratic employes—up to around 4,000—during the early months of Nunn's Republican administration for alleged political activity. The state Personnel Board subsequently ordered various state agencies to reinstate more than 100 or those on the ground that their alleged political involvement had not been proved.

FRANKFORT, Ky.—State agencies so far have hired 262 persons under the federally financed Emergency Employment Act designed to fight unemployment, the program's state director said yesterday.

However, the state has not yet received information on an additional $3 million in job grants for cities and counties announced Monday in Washington, Director Harold Newton said.

Flue-Cured Leaf Prices In Decline

From AP Dispatches
Grade prices for flue-cured tobacco continued downward Thursday as sales ended for the week on the Eastern, Middle and Old Belt markets in North Carolina and Virginia.

The Federal-State Market News Service reported that averages for most leaf grades were lower again on the Eastern Belt, but only small fluctuations occurred for the remaining grades.

1970: It was a very bad year for many state farmers

By JAMES R. RUSSELL
The Courier-Journal Farm Editor

A farm income analysis by University of Kentucky agricultural economists shows that 1970 was near disastrous for many of the state's farmers.

The corn blight, higher feed costs, low hog prices, unfavorable weather and the 10 per cent burley tobacco allotment cut were tagged in the new UK study as the major factors contributing to the greatly reduced profit. These factors sent many farmers to their savings accounts or to lending agencies.

The report dealt with 319 farms in 65 counties. The farms, with an average investment of $350,000, are enrolled in the Kentucky Farm Analysis Groups which are directed by the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

The final figure is what economists call the net management return, or the "reward" for the farmer taking the risk of being in business for himself.

It showed that income for each of the farms in the survey was just a little over $3,600 in 1970 compared with an average of $14,000 in 1969.

Here's how the program works and the procedures used in determining farm profits:

Earnings are figured on net farm income, to which is added the value of farm products consumed by the family, the value of livestock, grain and other farm products on hand at the end of the accounting period and depreciation of assets along with any other changes in total assets.

From that figure, interest on the assets is subtracted at a rate which would be equivalent to the money the farmer would receive if he sold out and invested in sound common stocks. Also deducted in the record keeping is a charge of $300 per month for family labor.

The economists say that the net management return added to the salary for family labor may be compared with the salary a non-farmer gets from a factory or office job.

Economists point out that in 1970, the six areas in the state involved in the study ranged from 4.91 per cent to 2.12 per cent return on invested capital and managerial ability of the farmer. By comparison, wise investment in common stocks would have netted 7 to 8 per cent return, the economists said.

They add that the farmers in the analysis group are among the top half in efficiency and management ability. Farmers with less efficiency and management ability are in "sad trouble" and can only hang on as long as their capital lasts, the economists said. If land values don't continue to rise, giving these farmers added credit base, the marginally efficient farmer will be in serious trouble, the economists said.

The report shows that Bluegrass farmers were hardest hit in 1970. Twenty-seven farms in the study showed a net management loss of $6,180 for 1970 compared to a loss of $4,282 for 1969.

The 10 per cent cut in burley tobacco allotments was a factor in the lower profits. The cut, the report says, counter-

State's mine safety record called worst in the nation

By JOE WARD
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky.—The director of the federal Bureau of Mines told Kentucky coal mine operators here yesterday that the commonwealth's coal mine safety record is "the worst of any major coal-producing state in the nation."

The director, Dr. Elbert F. Osborn, called the fatality rate in Kentucky's small coal mines "deplorable," and said the state's larger coal mines "have not been doing well either."

He said Kentucky's underground mine fatality rate through the first eight months of this year is 1.64 per million man-hours, which he said is "getting close to twice the national rate of .94" and "approaches three times the rate for all underground coal mines" in West Virginia.

Osborn indicated that the weight in the high over-all rate comes from a 3.47 per million man-hours rate in the small coal mines, but he noted that the state's large mine rate is 1.64, itself higher than in nearby coal states.

The bureau director blamed the high fatality rate on miners' "failure to adjust to changing conditions and failure to follow time-honored safe-mining practices."

Osborn's audience, members of the Kentucky Coal Association attending their annual business meeting, did not react outwardly during the speech but at least one man challenged his figures privately afterward.

Robert Holcomb, a Pike County coal operator and spokesman for area coalmen, said the Kentucky Mines Department had told him it doesn't have man-hour figures for the first eight months

$445,911 bid to repair KY 15 section never formally opened to the public

By ANNE PARDUE
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

FRANKFORT, Ky.—The state Highway Department yesterday received one bid—for $445,911—to resurface a six-mile stretch of KY 15 in Perry and Knott counties that has not been officially opened to through traffic.

And Highway Commissioner B. E. King repeated that the state hopes to collect the "whole amount or a portion of damage" caused by coal trucks tearing up the road, either through negotiation or lawsuits.

If the damages cannot be collected, payment by state and federal governments will be committed once a contract for the bituminous resurfacing is awarded, King said.

King said a decision on yesterday's bid is not expected until next week. The bid was submitted by Adams Construction Corp. of Pikeville.

Don Duff, deputy commissioner for administration, said the department's legal and engineering staffs are currently accumulating information preparatory to filing suit for damages done by coal trucks on the six-mile stretch of KY 15.

Duff said the department has asked the Department of Motor Transportation for accumulative listings of citations issued to overweight vehicles to determine who has been hauling and for whom.

Further, Duff said a department attorney and engineer inspected the road

Wednesday to obtain their personal views.

Duff said no lawsuit has been drawn since the department is still in the information-gathering stage. One factor in a suit would have to be an allegation of what damages have occurred, he said.

Duff said yesterday's bidding involved 6,068 miles of KY 15 from near Jeff to near Red Oak Branch, of which 4 miles is a new section and not involved in the resurfacing.

The six-mile section originally was paved two years ago, and had not yet been opened to traffic this summer because of work being done by the Army Corps of Engineers in connection with an impoundment on Carr Fork. But the six mile Jeff-Red Oak section had been opened to local traffic, which includes mine-to-tipple coal-truck traffic.

BIG PAY - NO WORK

PSC aides work at home

By LIVINGSTON TAYLOR
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

FRANKFORT, Ky.—The state Public Service Commission (PSC) has eight administrative assistants, including the sister of chairman Harold Kelley, assigned to job locations in their hometowns and drawing PSC salaries of $5,484 a year each.

Kelley, who was ousted June 30 from administrative control of the PSC by fellow commissioners Joe Travis and Howard Clay, said Friday that he hired the eight to "handle complaints" about the state's 352 utilities, which the commission regulates.

Clay said Friday that he and Travis plan to "take a new look at things" this week.

"I know there'll be some changes," Clay said. He declined to go into specifics until he talks further with Travis, who was out of town for the weekend.

The eight administrative assistants currently on the payroll were hired between April 1968 and February 1970. They are:

✓ Mrs. Beatrice M. Reed, 57, of Ashland, Kelley's sister.

✓ Mrs. Mary Lee Jones, 61, of Elkton, wife of Todd County Judge W. S. Jones. Jones is a Democrat who supported Republican Gov. Louie B. Nunn in the 1967 election.

✓ William R. Adams, 66, of Jeremiah in Letcher County, a former Republican state representative.

✓ Lawrence E. Forgy, 56, of Lewisburg in Logan County, father of Lawrence E. Forgy Jr., former deputy finance commissioner in the GOP state administration and now a University of Kentucky vice president.

✓ Sam H. Sartin, 67, of Willow Shade in Metcalfe County, listed on state personnel records as a state-level U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) official during the Eisenhower administration.

✓ Mrs. Pauline E. Bratcher, 48, of Greenville, widow of W. D. Bratcher. Bratcher, a 1st District GOP chairman, appointed by Gov. Nunn to the PSC in early 1968, died later that year.

✓ James L. Bersot, 57, of Louisville, listed in the Louisville city directory as president of Custom Perma-Gutters, Inc.

✓ Raymond F. Grizzell, 75, of Mount Sterling, listed in state records as a former school-book sales manager.

Mrs. Jones was contacted at her Elkton home and asked what her state duties are. "Anything that comes up that requires investigation or looking into," Mrs. Jones said.

Could she give an example of her work?

"No sir, not at the present," she replied.

Asked whom she reports to in her work, Mrs. Jones said, "The man in Frankfort, I can't think of his name right now."

Four decline to answer query

Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Bratcher, Bersot and Sartin declined to say what they do in their jobs, referring the question to Kelley.

Sartin did describe how he came to Frankfort to apply for a job and met Kelley in a Capitol Building office in the presence of a fellow Metcalfe countian, Tom Emberton, then an assistant to the governor and now the Republican candidate for governor. Emberton also formerly was a member of the PSC.

"He (Kelley) told me my headquarters would be at Willow Shade, and he would call me when I was needed," Sartin said.

Asked how often he has been called, Sartin said, "I haven't been called very often."

Adams, Forgy and Grizzell could not be reached for comment.

"These people handle complaints and do this and that and the other," Kelley said in a telephone interview from Ashland. "I don't have a big enough staff there (at Frankfort) to handle them... We have 352 utilities to regulate."

The utilities are telephone, electric, gas, water, pipeline and telegraph firms.

As for his sister, Kelley said she "does as good a job as the rest of them."

Asked what she can do in Ashland that Kelley, also of Ashland, could not do, Kelley replied, "She can do a whole lot, just like Louie's sister (Mrs. Virginia Strohecker) works in his office, you know."

"We followed the precedent of the previous commission," Kelley continued.

"They had five or six. I may have three or four more than they had, but our number of utilities has increased."

(In December 1967, state records show the previous commission had two administrative assistants and five investigators. The investigators were paid on a $25 per diem basis, rather than a straight salary.)

State GOP raises, spends more on election than Democrats

By CHRIS WADDLE
Courier-Journal Staff Writer

Kentucky Republican campaign machinery has raised more money and spent more than the Democrats during the current electioneering.

In required reports filed yesterday (30 days before the Nov. 2 election) with the state Registry of Election Finance, the political price tags looked like this:

The Kentucky Democratic Campaign Committee reported it has received $273,641 in contributions and receipts from such occasions as campaign dinners. Expenditures listed by Democrats totaled $142,618.72.

The Tom Emberton for Kentucky's Governor Committee, which an official of the election finance registry said includes all the candidates on the party's statewide slate, reported $357,855.74 in contributions and receipts. The party has spent $366,128.84—more money than has been taken in.

However, Republicans previously said that since Emberton had no primary battle for the nomination, a surplus in the party treasury has helped meet expenses.

Wendell Ford, Democratic nominee and the state's present lieutenant governor, had to campaign in his party's primary against former Gov. Bert Combs.

In sharp contrast to the major parties, the American Party State Campaign Fund reported receiving $1,015 from contributors—none of whom gave more than $500—and spending a total of $663.45.

2nd member, 'disillusioned,' quits GOP's state committee

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Describing himself as disillusioned with the state Republican administration, a second member says he has resigned from the GOP State Central Committee.

John Sharp, Williamsburg, said he submitted his resignation to GOP State Chairman John Kerr Jr. last Thursday but Kerr said yesterday that he had not yet received it. Kerr declined to comment on the matter until he receives formal notification.

Sharp's resignation comes less than a month after Marshall (Nick) Burlew of Owensboro resigned from the committee.

Burlew said he was resigning because he supported Lt. Gov. Wendell Ford, a Democrat also from Owensboro, in next month's gubernatorial election rather than Tom Emberton, the Republican.

Sharp, in explaining his resignation, said he felt he had been "slapped in the face" by the state GOP administration when "about a couple of months ago they started paying attention to other sides here."

"Instead of letting me call the shots," asserted Sharp, who was Whitley County patronage chairman, "they've been listening to other people."

Specific examples of his being overruled by the administration, he said, were in road placement and transfer of personnel.

Gov. Louie B. Nunn's only comment on Sharp's charges yesterday was that they were "self-explanatory."

Editorial Comment from the Russellville, (Ky.) News Democrat

The Man Who Proved His Right To Be A Leader

WE WERE looking through our files near presstime this week in search of a suitable picture of Wendell Ford to run in the paper along with the story that he would be in Logan County for yet another campaign visit.

What a file it is... What a witness to one man's effort to persuade a people. There he is at a Rotary meeting, chatting away with several fellows while "Doc" Beauchamp looks on with a smile that could only be described as "inscrutable."

Then, here he is again, grinning at a pretty girl who was a winner in the Tobacco Festival Beauty contest. In dead of winter, he's shivering on the platform while the Lewisburg Christmas parade passes in review—the only major politician who found his way to the Coon Range in the middle of December. A factory scene flashes up—the back of candidate Ford, arms outstretched across a pile of garments to touch the hand of a Logan woman.

Airport meetings—rather bare and sweeping. The candidate stands beside a little airplane, pensively listening to a faithful friend, usually Doug Shoulders, that persistent and enduring buddy from the Jaycees, or James Milam, in earnest conversation. There's something rather jaunty about those airport pictures. They were in the primary when the running seemed all uphill against the big man—Bert Combs—and there wasn't much money (there has never been) to buy the gas, and the wise boys said the Ford campaign would run out of money and votes before the primary election day. Another set of pictures—at Doc Beauchamp's funeral. Wendell Ford at the edge of the scene, keenly aware that Beauchamp was joined with Combs, but somehow determined to show his respect to the old party hero just the same.

TURNING FURTHER, there's a picture of Wendell Ford at the Strawberry Festival, just before the primary. It's stuck against a misplaced picture from an earlier visit when they asked him to make a little talk at a Baptist Church. (Did he ever refuse to make a little talk?) Here's another shot. He's walking toward the Courthouse with a serious-faced band of youngsters who are making their debut in politics as his Russellville workers. The candidate is just a few feet away from the barber shop where he won some votes four years ago when he was running for lieutenant governor...

Wendell Ford didn't carry Logan in that race for lieutenant governor, but he almost did—and the votes that he did get may have been the difference in his 1967 victory, for his opponent had expected to win a large majority here. This year, Wendell Ford didn't capture Logan either, but his loss margin was slim, and there was no doubt that in all these visits Wendell Ford had won the hearts of many Logan countians.

Now at last the nominee and standard bearer of the Democratic Party, Wendell Ford comes back to this familiar stumping area the winner of a smashing primary upset and the leader under whose banner the Logan County Democrats have buried their factional hatchets.

He has worked for and earned every vote he ever got in this community. Each fight has been uphill, and his courage and warm personality have brought around more voters in every campaign. In politics, all campaigns are crucial, there is never a minor election for the candidate whose name is on the ballot. But for Wendell Ford, the test of tests is just a few weeks away.

Through perseverance, a dogged determination to get through the politicians and into the hearts of the people, by dint of much hard work, and because he has shown himself a man who doesn't know how to give up, he is returning to Logan County in the closing days of the campaign as a man who has proven his right to the leadership of the party. He will find a warm welcome here, reflective, we are sure, of a hearty vote in November when, most observers believe, Wendell Ford will carry Logan County and earn, at last, that majority for which he has so diligently and gallantly labored.

Man To Man

An appraisal of Wendell Ford by a campaign worker

He is a person who works constantly at the job of getting along with other people and helping them to get along with each other. He goes out of his way to see the other fellows point of view and help bring understanding where there is tension. Although he himself may be able to jump across the chasm that he sees in human relations, he thinks of the other people affected by it and starts to build a bridge of understanding, cooperation and good will.

Radiance and joy are characteristic of this person who has this quality of personality. He is not afraid of fighting, but he is concerned with fighting over things that are trivial and not worth the struggle of the soul. He is concerned of the damage that can come to human personality from an unkind word thoughtlessly spoken. He is concerned of the prejudices that like leeches suck away the life of a nation. He is concerned, but he is concerned with the tensions between races and groups and classes of people. He is concerned, but he is honest and courageous, and so he builds bridges of appreciation, of understanding, and of cooperation.

He works at the job of helping people live together in peace and harmony.

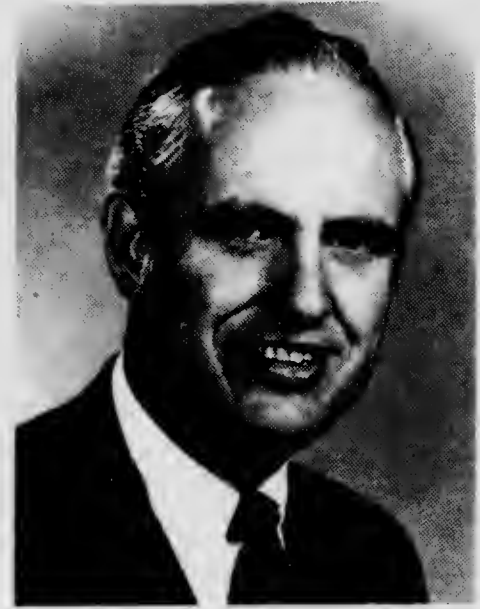

Is there anybody our state needs more right now than this person? Is there any of us who could not work harder at becoming this kind of person?
